

279 - 279

PORK FOREST - About 1787 - About 1 mile north of Fork on Park Forest Road, north side of road. Two-story stone farm house in vernacular style, built about 1787 on a tract owned by Joseph Johnson. Also a small frame wing in vertical board and batten. Double-deck porch on main block. Photographed in 1930s by WPA's HABS project. Property remained in Johnson family until 1933 when purchased by John H. Scarff, who laid out elaborate Renaissance-style gardens. Later owned by Dr. Alice Baghdassarian Granoff. The Johnson grave plot is on this property.